

Sytrime Dervisholli is Director of the Trade Department in the Ministry of Trade and Industry, also a National Contact Point in CEFTA Agreement. She is Chair of the National Trade Facilitation Committee. She is Head of Committee of Free Trade Agreement between Kosovo and Turkey. She was Deputy Head of the negotiating team of Kosovo for the UK-Kosovo Free Trade Agreement. In 2017, she was awarded by the Kosovo Manufacturer's Club for her precious contribution in the economic development and tireless work in the promotion of Kosovo products. She is an IVLP fellow, participated in the IVLP program on "Trade and Economic Development" in 2013. She is the author of the book titled "Opportunities to the Foreign Investment in Kosovo". She is the author of "Manual on Foreign Investor". Sytrime holds a Master of Science in Public Administration from RIT Kosovo and a Bachelor's degree in Banks, Finance and Accounting from the University of Prishtina.